RECOGNIZING THE LITERACY
COUNCIL OF NORTHERN VIR-
GINIA'S 60 YEARS OF SERVICE

HON. GERALD E. CONNOLLY

OF VIRGINIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, May 27, 2022

Mr. CONNOLLY. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize the 60th Anniversary of the Literacy Council of Northern Virginia.

Founded in 1962, the LCNV is the oldest literacy program in the state and one of the largest literacy councils in the nation. Throughout its 60 years of service, the LCNV has adapted to the growing needs of the Northern Virginia community to serve adult learners at the lowest literacy level.

Not only are they celebrating a milestone of 60 years, but they are about to celebrate a milestone of serving 60,000 adult learners. By empowering tens of thousands of adult learners to better participate in their communities, LCNV is ensuring the economic success of hundreds of local families for a lifetime.

With the help of dedicated volunteers, LCNV has become one of the more efficient and effective community-based literacy organizations in the country. In FY2021, despite being in the middle of a global pandemic, LCNV's 436 volunteers were able to put in a total of 16,344 hours of service. LCNV was able to hold events to recruit and train volunteers, which helped the organization meet and work with 204 new volunteers. These new volunteers were critical as the organization had to pivot to virtual programming for the year. The volunteers were able to provide substantial remote support to help their students use the online learning platforms.

LCNV has spent the past six decades helping people from all over the world achieve their goals and better their lives with literacy skills. On average each year, their students come from 90 different countries and speak 50 different languages. Their commitment to meeting people where they are in their educational journey has allowed them to become a trusted resource in the community and a leader in adult education. In the fall of 2021, LCNV was called upon to help with literacy classes for refugees coming over from Afghanistan. While their fall session had already started, LCNV quickly adapted and added classes for the students that would not have been able to wait for the next registration period. To date, they have been able to help almost 170 Afghan refugees with English literacy skills.

Literacy is not just about being able to read, it's about being able to further your career, engage in conversations with family and friends, and become more civically engaged. LCNV helps students reach their goals like voting for the first time or getting a promotion at their job. The skills gained in LCNV classrooms, both virtual and in-person, allow learners to improve wellness and attain healthier lifestyles as well.

Madam Speaker, I ask that my colleagues join me in recognizing the 60th Anniversary of the Literacy Council of Northern Virginia. Its values of Integrity, Innovation, Respect, Collaboration, and Excellence have propelled it to success for the past 60 years and will continue to carry the Council through the next 60 years. I also want to express my gratitude to the LCNV staff, Board of Directors, and countless volunteers who dedicate their time and resources to empower neighbors of our community to develop basic skills of reading, writing, and speaking English.

IN HONOR OF DR. WILLIAM ROES
RETIREMENT AFTER 40 YEARS
OF SERVICE TO HIS COMMUNITY

HON. DEREK KILMER

OF WASHINGTON

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, May 27, 2022

Mr. KILMER. Madam Speaker, I rise today to celebrate Dr. William Roes for the 40 years that he has dedicated to the Key Peninsula community, where he served as the only family doctor for decades. And like many others in our community, I want to wish him well as he enters retirement.

Dr. William Roes graduated in 1973 from the University of Washington and attended medical school at the University of Nevada College of Medical Sciences and Washington University in St. Louis. Dr. Roes' long career on the Key Peninsula began in 1980 when he came to work once a week at the Key Peninsula Health Center while completing his residency program at MultiCare Tacoma Family Medicine. After graduating from the residency program in August of 1981, Dr. Roes decided to call the area home and applied for the family doctor position at The Key Peninsula Medical Center. Dr. Roes began his full-time practice at The Key Peninsula Health Center as the only family doctor at the clinic until his "soft retirement" shortly before the pandemic started. Dr. Roes still does home visits to connect with his patients who are now in nursing homes and still helps with special projects at the clinic.

Madam Speaker, beyond his tenure as a medical provider, I would also like to express gratitude for all that Dr. Roes has done to serve our community outside his clinic doors. When the pandemic first hit, Dr. Roes created his own PPE using painter's suits and performed COVID-19 tests at elderly patients' homes. He has also served as the medical director for the Key Peninsula Fire Department and on the board for the Mustard Seed Project, a local nonprofit that provides services and programs for seniors residing on the Key Peninsula. For his compassionate commitment to improving the health and well-being of people in the community, Dr. Roes was awarded the Washington State Family Physician of the Year in 2008.

Madam Speaker, I would like to honor and celebrate Dr. William Roes—whose love for his community has never wavered and whose commitment and service to his patients and their families is greatly appreciated. He has an extraordinary legacy. He has made a real difference. And I am pleased to honor him in the United States House.

COMMEMORATING THE LIFE OF
CAPTAIN KIMBERLY SCHOPPA

HON. GERALD E. CONNOLLY

OF VIRGINIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, May 27, 2022

Mr. CONNOLLY. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize the service of Fire Captain Kimberly Schoppa of Fairfax County, who recently passed away after a battle with occupational cancer.

Captain Schoppa joined Fairfax County Fire and Rescue in 2004. While serving her community, she quickly emerged as a leader among her peers. She was promoted to Captain of an engine at Station 27 in West Springfield and was a member of the Honor Guard at the time of her passing.

In her career, Captain Schoppa took on the dangerous work of fire suppression. Her talents were widely recognized, but when talk turned to a future as a battalion chief, Captain Schoppa insisted that she wanted to be on the front line. She wanted to fight fires and save lives. Captain Schoppa's peers knew that she would be happiest in the front seat of the fire truck, working firsthand to keep her community safe.
